Please note the following mission statement:

ST. JAMES HOUSE, a ministry of Saint John Orthodox Cathedral in Eagle River, Alaska, provides a residential program where young, single people live in an extended family setting and become better prepared to live in the world as faithful Orthodox Christian men and women. This is accomplished primarily through evening studies, household work projects, and participation in the liturgical and community life of St. John Cathedral, as well as their daily interaction with one another.

As you read this statement, what do you hope to gain from your time at the St. James House?

The St. James House generally runs from mid-August to the end of May. When would you be available or like to move into the St. James House?

Is there any reason you would not be able to stay through the end of May? If so, please describe:

Please provide names and numbers of at least two references:

The overseers of the House or one of the priests at the Cathedral will contact you after receiving this application to see if you have any further questions about the Saint James House. They will ask you at that time about any special struggles you may have (such as alcohol or drug use, disabilities, etc.), personal challenges, and the goals you hope to achieve during your time of residence in the Saint James House. Shortly after this interview, you will receive notice of whether or not you have been accepted as a resident for the coming year. Please sign below and return this application to:
